Bridgeport’s Eleanor St. Boathouse Honored For Design

This year the top prize, the Blue Ribbon Award, was given by the Eleanor St. Boathouse, 2950 S. Eleanor St., located in the Chicago South Side’s Armour Park neighborhood. Designed by Studio Gang, the two­story facility has a multi­level field house and a running, training, and boat storage facility. It has been called “a sign of neighborhood rebirth.”

“Friends is thrilled to recognize the award winners for their investment in the relational, physical, cultural space, stormwater management and engagement with the Chicago River system,” said Margaret Fric­ke, executive director of Friends of the Chicago River. “There is terrific opportunity to develop the river for people while featuring the Chicago River.”
