Santa Lucia Celebrates Christmas with a Special Children’s Nativity Mass

On Sunday, December 17th, students and faculty of Santa Lucia School gathered together for a special children’s mass. The story of the Nativity was re-enacted with the help of Mrs. D’Alcamo and Mr. Christano, along with several Santa Lucia schoolchildren. Students portrayed the Blessed Mother Mary, Joseph, the Wisemen, shepherds, angels and animals, all welcoming the birth of Jesus, as the story was narrated.

After church, children and adults enjoyed a lovely family Christmas breakfast, including a special visit from Santa Claus in Manhattan Hall. We wish everyone a very blessed Christmas season!
