January Warmth

January is cold, I know, and so I dream of the warmth of my love’s arms. No matter how harsh the cold winds blow, wrapped in her love I am cozy and warm. Nothing the icy breath of January can do, not even her fiercest, snowy storms can touch the comfort of my spirit, for with one tender embrace I am in Florida bathing in the sunshine of her love. For such is the nature of love that for those who possess it, it can achieve powers beyond description!

—Ray Springer

Love makes your soul crawl out of its hiding place.
